

Season 2011-12

Sunday, October 23, 2011- 2 PM

Evan Marshall, mandolinist

Ivan Marshall is an internationally renowned mandolin virtuoso. Evan started violin at the age seven and added the mandolin at age 14. In addition to solo performances, Evan has created a uniquely recognizable approach to solo mandolin performance that combines bass lines, chords, rhapsodic runs and tremolo melodies.

Aside from his solo performances, he has been a featured artist with symphony orchestras including Houston, Phoenix, Long Beach, to name a few.

I Musici D'Amore
and special guest to be announced

Chamber music with:
Sharon Cooper, violin
Pam De Almeida, cello
Barbara D'Addario, piano

Sharon Cooper began her love affair with the violin when she was 5 years old and saw her mother, an accomplished pianist rehearsing with a violinist. She began learning violin shortly. Sharon has performed all over California, Europe and Australia in many recitals, chamber ensembles and orchestras.

Pam De Almeida is a native of Long Beach, Ca. and a graduate of Occidental college where she was a student of Joseph Di Tullio. Throughout her career, she has been a member of professional symphony orchestras in four countries. Pamela is presently a freelance cellist performing with numerous symphony orchestras in So. California.

Barbara D'Addario started picking out melodies at the piano at the age of four and her insistence resulted in the start of lessons by her mother, a piano teacher. Her teachers included Clarence Adler, a pupil of Leopold Godowsky and Sofia Cosma, a pupil of Jules Isserlis
